URGE NEGROES TO RETURN TO WORK

East St. Louis Employers Promise Men Protection in Life and Property

BUSINESS MEN MEET

May Appeal To Federal Government if Normal Traffic Cannot Be Restored

TO MEET AGAIN FRIDAY

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., July 5.—The interruption to the industrial life of this city and to the commercial life of the much larger city of St. Louis, Mo., as a result of the exodus of negro labor that followed the race riots on Monday, arrested the attention of the business of the two cities today.

Adopt Resolution.
The chamber of commerce of East St. Louis, at a meeting attended by seventy-five business men and heads of industries, adopted a resolution urging the negro workers who fled from East St. Louis to return, promising them, on the authority of the chief of police, protection in life and property.

At the same time, Traffic Commissioner Coyle of the St. Louis chamber of commerce took up with railway and terminal officials the interruption to freight movement that has resulted from the exodus of negroes employed in the freight and switching yards. Mr. Coyle said that if normal traffic could not be restored by the railroads an appeal would be made to the federal government on the basis of federal control over interstate commerce.

Most of the St. Louis railroads have their freight terminals in East St. Louis and anything that interferes with labor in the railway yards of East St. Louis affects St. Louis commerce directly.

About 1,500 Illinois guardsmen are now on duty here, and the resolutions adopted by the East St. Louis chamber of commerce today assured the negroes that these troops can preserve order without the assistance of the federal troops. A meeting of 300 business men will be held on Friday afternoon to consider means of getting the negro laborers to return.

Need Negroes in Old Jobs.
Railway and packing house officials said today that they needed the negroes in their old jobs and if they did not return a general curtailment of business would be unavoidable.

The chamber of commerce also instructed a committee to demand the reorganization of the police and fire departments of East St. Louis and to call on Attorney General Brundage of Illinois to assist a committee on prosecutions in ferreting out and punishing the ringleaders of Monday's rioting.

A demand that Mayor Mollman of East St. Louis resign was voted at the meeting, but was not made a matter of record. No formal action along this line was taken.

Bring up Riots in Senate.
Washington, July 5.—Senator Thomas brought up the race riots in East St. Louis during debate on the food bill in the senate today as an indication of social unrest which is manifested in various parts of the country at times. He declared that one tenth of the population of this country is black and said their loyalty in the present crisis is essential.

Senator Lewis interrupted to say that the news reports of the trouble had been inaccurate and that the citizens have asked for a federal intervention.

Senator Sherman declared the disorders in East St. Louis were due to the saloons.

"It's the worst saloon town in America," he said, adding that the saloons openly disregarded the laws and for years the town had been an oasis to the people of St. Louis, Mo., who came across the bridge on Sunday to get their liquor.

States Mayor Was Supine.
The Illinois senator asserted that the mayor was supine and the police not only inadequate, but with an inclination not to interfere with violation of the liquor laws. East St. Louis, he said, received a lot of the undesirables from St. Louis, Mo., and so great had contempt for law become that it was easy enough for the lawless to start a career of shooting and burning when the occasion offered.

"I have no apology for East St. Louis, or for my state or for any other state which allows such conditions to exist," he declared. "I am a bone dry senator from now on."

Part of the blame, Senator Sherman said, was due to the Industrial Workers of the World.

McRorison Denies Charges.
Washington, July 5.—Charges that labor unions were responsible for the East St. Louis race riots drew a denial today from Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, who in the absence

RUSSIANS HOLD THEIR GAINS AGAINST ATTACK

Indications of Stronger Activity in Other Theatres

British Advance and French Artillery is Active On Western Front—Artillery activity increases on Austro-Italian Front.

With the Russians holding their gains in Galicia against Austro-German attacks, the indications of stronger activity in the other war theaters are multiplying.

On the Western front the British have advanced and the French artillery is active from north of Aisne to the Meuse; the artillery activity has increased on the entire Austro-Italian front; there has been greater local activity in Roumania and on the Macedonian front. The Germans have taken the offensive on a small sector.

Around Brzezany and near Lipnicadolina, on the Narayevka north of Brzezany, the Austro-Germans have attacked the Russians in attempts to regain the territory lost early in the week. Their efforts against Russian advanced posts east of Brzezany were checked by the Russian artillery fire, and two attacks near Lipnicadolina were broken up. Farther south along the Hungarian-Roumanian border and in Roumania where there has been no violent fighting since the cessation of Field Marshal Von Mackensen's drive last fall, greater activity is reported. There have been reports recently that the Roumanian army, re-equipped and re-formed, was ready to assume the offensive, and it is probable they are to follow in the path of their Russian neighbors. In an attack against the German lines southwest of Hollebeke in Flanders along the Ypres canal and on the northern end of the recent British advance against the Messines ridge, Field Marshal Haig's troops have driven the Germans back on a front of 600 yards. Major General Maurice of the British army declared on Thursday that the British army had not lost a gun since April, 1915, and that since the beginning of the war the British had captured 739 guns and lost 133, of which 37 were re-captured.

The German Crown Prince has not repeated his attacks in Champagne, and the French still cling to the predominating positions on this front. Meanwhile the artilleries are engaged violently from northeast of Soissons to near Verdun.

Two strong enemy columns have attacked the right wing of the Italian army in Macedonia. These efforts, Paris reports, were repulsed. On this front as well as on the Austro-Italian front the artilleries have been busy.

LANDIS SENTENCES MEN WHO DEFIED DRAFT

FREEPORT, Ill., July 5.—Opponents of military service who defied the federal registration law here last month were meted heavy punishment and scathing reukes here today by Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis in United States district court. Of 121 men arrested in Rockford during the anti-draft disturbances there, 117 were sentenced to serve one year and a day in the Chicago house of correction, two escaped with 30 day sentences, one with 60 days and another with 90 days.

"Hard labor" was specified in pronouncing sentence and court attaches said it was because the prisoners would live under more rigorous conditions in the Chicago corrective institution than they were sentenced there rather than to a federal penitentiary.

Judge Landis interrupted the hearing of the cases several times to express biting denunciation of the men who refused to obey the nation's laws in time of peril. Almost all of them are aliens and for these he had the severest condemnation. Socialism, too, drew sarcastic comment from the jurist.

PRELIMINARY WORK IN TRAINING COURSE OVER

FORT SHERIDAN, Ill., July 5.—Candidates for Army commissions went over the top today in a reproduction of the famous allied offensive in Flanders. A series of sharp explosions which lifted tons of dirt from imaginary enemy trenches signalled the attack. With a cheer the Americans leaped from their own fortifications, product of two weeks' grueling labor, and charged across the open ground in the face of hypothetical machine guns until they drove the foe from his emplacements and the victory was won.

There was a vigor and dash in the way with which the prospective officers got into action that brought nods of commendation from their instructors. Preliminary work in the training course is over now. What the candidates for commissions are doing approaches as nearly as possible real warfare and their showing under such conditions will eliminate many, but will leave those fitted to lead to victory the army of democracy. That is why the seasoned instructors are watching so closely the work of every individual.

Barbed wire entanglements were added today to the trench system of defenses constructed by the men in training. Wooded barricades also have been erected as a supplement to the trench protection.

FOUR KILLED IN ACCIDENTS.

Chicago, July 5.—A check of automobiles and motor cycle accidents here on the Fourth of July showed today that four persons were killed, and nineteen injured, most of them in automobiles that were being driven to the country for quiet spending of the holiday. The dead are James E. Gould, Anthony Schmidt, Andrew S. Rocka and Everett Ziegler.

EXPECT FURTHER BRITISH OFFENSIVE

COPENHAGEN, July 5.—Lieutenant General Von Stein, Prussian minister of war and state, told a committee of the German Reichstag yesterday, according to despatches received here, that a further British offensive was expected north of Arras where General Haig apparently is preparing actions on a large scale. The minister said the abandonment of the Salomini campaign was improbable, but he regarded the Italian offensive on the Iszony and in the Tyrol as shattered. His views on the Russian offensive are unreported if expressed.

The ministerial declarations regarding the working of the submarine campaign, about which the official Wolff News Bureau cable ample reports to the neutral press were not the only matters before yesterday's meeting of the Reichstag committee. The Socialist organ Vorwärts in its independent report of the proceedings in the "little Reichstag" says Herr Ebert, the Socialist, devoted considerable attention to the unsatisfactory conditions in the nutrition of the people and the prospects of settlement of the war.

PREDICT MEXICO WILL BREAK WITH GERMANY

Prominent Mexicans Expect Move Within Sixty Days

State All German Money Will be Seized as Soon as War is Declared and That All German Boats in Mexican Waters Will be Taken.

EL PASO, Texas, July 5.—Prominent Mexicans, in close touch with the capitol, predict Mexico will declare war on Germany within sixty days. According to these men all German money in Mexico City, Torreon, Chihuahua City and other towns will be seized as soon as war is declared, the German boats in Tampico and other ports will be seized, thereby giving Mexico a much needed merchant fleet and all Germans will either be interned or deported at once, their properties being confiscated.

The Tampico oil fields, it is added, would be made safe for the oil supplies of the allied fleets by declaring a zone in which traffic would be restricted and the mines, smelters and mills re-opened at once to provide munitions metals for the allies.

The anti-German movement is not unopposed in the north, however, as the German residents of Chihuahua City, Torreon and other places have been spending money lavishly entertaining officials, army officers and influential citizens. But it is said here that they seem to have brought about a reaction by causing the naturally suspicious Mexicans to suspect that they had an ulterior motive in their friendship.

PROMISE BEST MEATS AT REASONABLE PRICES

CHICAGO, July 5.—The best of meats at reasonable prices was promised the government to feed its war forces by representatives of all the leading packing interests of the United States who conferred here today with Julius Rosenwald, chairman of the committee on supplies of the National Council of Defense.

"The spirit shown was fine," M. Rosenwald said after the conference. "They were unanimous in declaring their desire to serve the government in every way possible. Forty representatives of packers were in attendance at the meeting, those present besides members of Chicago firms including Jacob Dold of Buffalo, Thomas Hammond of Detroit and E. Rath of Waterloo, Iowa."

Merchant vessels about to sail were held up and the Washington and Baltimore steamers were escorted from the roads and part of their way up the bay by warships.

Washington, July 5.—Neither the war nor navy departments received a report tonight on the Hampton Roads submarine scare.

Bloomington, Ill., July 5.—Darrell F. Jackson, one of the prominent Sinn Feiners, lately released from prison, said in a speech at Killaloe, Ireland, that steps to achieve Irish independence were being thought out and that the full policy would be disclosed at the proper time. Meantime, he said, the Sinn Feiners would not be idle. They would appoint a constituent assembly and appeal to the peace conference at which England would not be the best loved of conferees. If the nation rallied they would see a sovereign Irish republic within two years.

REGISTRATION PROGRESSING RAPIDLY IN PORTO RICO

BULLETIN.

PEORIA, Ill., July 6.—Orders to entrain for Bloomington for riot duty were received by Captain Thomas J. Simpson, of Troop G, First Illinois Cavalry, with Adjutant General Dickson at Springfield by long distance telephone this morning (Friday) at 2 o'clock.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., July 5.—The street car strike, which has been in progress peacefully for several weeks, developed into a riot tonight, following a speech by "Mother" Jones. One car was taken from the rails and placed across the railway tracks, several conductors and motormen were badly beaten and one man said to have been in the crowd which was attacking the cars was shot thru the neck. The mob started for the power plant which operates the street cars, commercial lighting and power system cars, but the employees, notified of their coming, shut down the plant and the city is without light or power, except for the municipal plant which furnishes lights for the streets.

After shouting around the power house for an hour or more, the crowd resumed its march of destruction and smashed windows of the street cars which had not been able to reach the barns after the current was shut off, then went on to the offices of the Bloomington & Normal Railway and Light company in the main business part of town and smashed the plate glass windows.

The street car company is a subsidiary of the Illinois Traction System, of which Congressman W. B. McKinley, of Champaign, Ill., is president.

The match will be one of eight games up, but the winner must have a lead of at least two games. While part of the match will be played in this city, it is planned to contest a considerable number of the games in Atlantic City.

SINN FEINERS TO APPEAL TO PEACE CONFERENCE

London, July 5.—Darrell F. Jackson, one of the prominent Sinn Feiners, lately released from prison, said in a speech at Killaloe, Ireland, that steps to achieve Irish independence were being thought out and that the full policy would be disclosed at the proper time. Meantime, he said, the Sinn Feiners would not be idle. They would appoint a constituent assembly and appeal to the peace conference at which England would not be the best loved of conferees. If the nation rallied they would see a sovereign Irish republic within two years.

GUARDSMAN KILLS MAN.

East St. Louis, Ill., July 5.—Peter Twardousky, a laborer was shot and killed tonight by Private Keating of the fourth regiment, Illinois National Guard of O'ney, Ill., while on sentry duty. Twardousky was walking in the railroad yards with two companions when they were ordered to halt by the guard. The two other men stopped but Twardousky kept walking and after the third command to halt the guardsman fired. Twardousky was married and has six children.

what American liberty means. Somewhat indifferent, without accurate knowledge of the real situation, the people for months past have not looked upon the war situation as seriously as the facts warrant. But in more recent weeks some change has taken place and now, more than ever before, there seems to be a general understanding that the U. S. is in a serious war and must not only do a part, but a gigantic part. The knowledge that men and money must be freely given upon the people here and elsewhere, and so July Fourth this year had a new and deeper meaning. And as the people renewed their vows of patriotism, so the country is better and truer today than it was before the Fourth.

SOLDIERS AVERAGE UP WELL

A Quincy paper brings to mind a worth-while thought which should be comforting to many mothers who are worrying about army influence on their boys. The paper referred to truly says that soldiers are no worse than civilians, and in fact, the army soon to be assembled is almost certain to be above the average since the men are to be drawn by lot from the great body of our civil life.

As the man who volunteers to serve his country is not likely to be lacking in moral strength, so it is true that young men of the country drawn as they will be, will represent the general conditions of society. Those young men who are of strong character will have that strength increased by army discipline, and those who are weak will be strengthened. The discipline of the army means regular living, it means exercises and it means life in the open air, with due care to questions of health and sanitation. Soldiers of the U. S. army will have a vast influence for good in their favor. There will be black sheep among them, of course, but as one looks at the facts without sentiment it is not probable that there will be as many of these undesirables among the soldiers as among civilians of like number.

IN A PARTY PANIC.
(Chicago Post.)

Probably the New York World is chiefly responsible for the President's attitude on the question of prohibition.

Our contemporary appears to have lost its sense of proportion over this particular issue. It has displayed an utter inability to view it as a war issue and has insisted on arguing it day after day on the old, platitudinous moral ground.

This is forgiveable, perhaps, but wholly unpardonable is the World's treatment of the question as a party issue.

Its final, frantic argument was that the adoption of prohibitory legislation would split the Democratic party as the Douglas-Breckinridge fight split it in 1860.

Suppose it did—who cares?

What happens to the Democratic party or the Republican party in the next two or three years is a matter of trivial concern. The big question is what happens the United States, and that depends on winning the war.

... it help win the war to banish liquor?

Answer that question. Does liquor militate against high efficiency?

Does it tend to restrict industrial productivity?

Does it divert valuable energy from useful channels of employment?

Does it use foodstuffs that are essential to the lives of our own people and our allies?

These are the questions on which the life or death of the traffic should be decided.

Liquor is a serious hindrance to victory for the United States.

Prohibition may be a hindrance to victory for the Democratic party.

Which consideration is of greater concern to you?

WESTMINSTER PICNIC.

The picnic given for members of Westminster church and Sunday school July 4 at Flint's grove near Clements was a great success. More than eighty persons went to the grove in automobiles and spent the day fishing and boating. The time passed so enjoyable that the greater number stayed for supper as well as dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fernandes and daughter, Julian, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watkins and son motored to Beardstown Wednesday in their Maxwell car and spent the Fourth with friends.

Rippling Rhymes
By WALT MASON

The Dismal Spring.

It was a cold and dreary spring; the little birds refused to sing; the winds were sighing night and day; the clouds would never go away; the earth had mildewed, 'twas so moist, and only ducks and frogs rejoiced. It was the weather made us sad, and not the news from Petrograd, or tidings of a French reverse, A Germany victory, or worse. Our country marching into war—that's not what we've been weeping for! Give us bright days and sunny skies, and pessimism promptly dies. Well face the direst, grimdest news and pass along our cheer-up views; we'll hear of pillage, death and wreck, and smilingly we'll be on deck, insisting that tomorrow's dawn will see the cloud of trouble gone. But when the skies are gray and bleak, and rain keeps falling by the week, and weary winds of wailing tones chill all the marrow in our bones, it's hard to spring the sunny smile, the effort's hardly worth our while. If you would see a joyful clan, why, then, convert the weather man. Convince him that his punk old clouds are most depressing to the crowds. Persuade him that his tin-horn rain gives every man a convex pain.

Brave Men.

Brave men are they who seek the foe, upon the waters or the heath, who fight until they're stricken low, and, smiling, greet the face of death. And some are brave who are not called to wield the sword in deadly charge, because they are too short or bald, because their trifles are too large. On them a heavy burden lies; they are men who raise the price, to send the allies guns and pines, and clothes, succotash and rice. Among them there are noble souls who bear the burden with a smile, they're glad to strip their slender rolls, and think the sacrifice worth while. Some men have found the sledging hard before the day of war arrived, it broke them buying beans and lard, they wondered how they'd ever survived. But, now the country needs more men, they cry, "Some way we'll dig the dust, to buy our Uncle Sam a gun; we'll raise the extra bones or bust." The cheerful spirit these men show is just as fine as martial zest, which leads a man to swat the foe and knock a Prussian galley west. So we have heroes in the mart, and on the farm and in the street, who could not in the war take part, because of their various moral ground.

This is forgiveable, perhaps, but wholly unpardonable is the World's treatment of the question as a party issue.

FRANKLIN MAN HURT
BY SPEEDING CAR

Kydie Robson is thrown from big automobile by force of collision and then takes ten miles to home.

An auto accident of peculiar sort took place about midnight Wednesday two miles south of the city when a rig driven by Kydie Robson of Franklin was hit by a speeding auto and demolished. Robson was on his way home from Nichols home and the car was coming to Jacksonville. Robson was dazed by the force of the collision and found himself in the back seat of the car. There was no one in the auto but the driver who seemed not to know of the new passenger.

Saying nothing to the driver, Robson opened the door and jumped from the car, walking to the home of Milford Rees, where he is employed. He reached his destination about 3 o'clock Thursday morning and the extent of his injuries were such that a physician was called. Robson was found to have a bad wash in the knee and to be otherwise injured. He will be kept from work for a number of days, altho no serious consequences are feared. The horse was found after daylight Thursday at the farm of Leslie Dodsorth, a half mile from the Rees home.

MYSTERIES SURROUND
ALLEGED MURDER CASE

Hospital Attendant Charged With Death of Boston Woman—At First Believed to be Suicide Case

Boston, Mass., July 5—Mysteries of an unusual nature remain to be solved in the case of Miss Harriet A. Varney, described as a hospital attendant, who is to be given a preliminary hearing in court tomorrow on a charge of causing the death of Mrs. Pauline Keyes, wife of a Boston real estate operator. Mrs. Keyes, 26 years old and a bride of only a few months, was found dead in her handsome apartment in Brookline on June 19. Death had been caused by two bullets fired thru the head. A revolver was found on the floor beside the dead woman and it was at first believed to be a case of suicide. Subsequent investigation by the police, however, led them to discard the suicide theory. Miss Varney was connected with the case when it was learned that she had been known to members of her family and acquaintances as "Mrs. George Keyes." Later she is said to have been identified by neighbors of the slain Mrs. Keyes as an unknown woman who had called at their home 10 days before the alleged murder and inquired for a minute description of Mrs. Keyes.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Albert Hopper, Thursday, July 19th.

DR. MASON DISCUSSED RACE PROBLEMS

Theme Taken by Colored Minister
Reared Here Brought Consideration of Present Day Affairs
Events at Wood River Convention.

Mt. Emory Baptist church was filled to overflowing Thursday night when a program of addresses was given in conjunction with the 49th annual convention of Wood River Baptist Sunday school convention.

The address of welcome in behalf of the city was delivered by Mayor Henry J. Rodgers with response by Dr. E. H. Borden of Beaumont, Texas. For the churches the address was delivered by the Rev. M. L. Mackey with response by Miss Mayme Osty of Springfield. Miss Hazel Felle Duncan extended welcome in behalf of Mt. Emory Baptist church and Sunday school with response by Grant Martin in behalf of the visitors. This was followed by a soul stirring sermon by the Rev. S. C. Manual of Springfield.

Dr. George C. Mason, who was born and reared here called the convention to order Thursday morning and delivered the annual address. He said in part:

"The negro must win his place in civilization as other races have done, and sitting down waiting for another to do for him what he should do for himself will never help him in this world," was the declaration made by the Rev. George C. Mason, in calling to order the forty-ninth annual session of the Wood River Baptist Sunday school convention yesterday morning in Mt. Emory Baptist church.

Spent Boyhood Here.

Dr. Mason was given an ovation by the people of Jacksonville, because it was here where he spent his early boyhood days, and it was here he finished his high school education, having graduated with the class of 1885. He has since attended the University of Chicago, and has made a good record as a minister, being now the pastor of the Union Baptist church in Alton.

Following an impressive song a prayer service and the appointment of a number of committees yesterday morning Dr. Mason delivered his annual address to the Sunday school workers. He based his foundation the "Parable of the Good Samaritan."

"While the work of the Samaritan is commendable," he said, "yet there was a greater and better thing he could have done, by relieving the suffering man, and then proceeding ahead and destroying the robber band, and thus he would have destroyed the cause and protected others from falling into their hands. So today, the churches are doing a commendable work in relieving the suffering caused by strong drink, but a greater thing would be to destroy the cause of that suffering. Are you going to make war cease today by organizing Red Cross societies, establishing hospitals, building hospital ships and organizing nurses, or would it not be more commendable or better to destroy the cause of the war?

"Our work is in vain as long as we simply strive to destroy the suffering caused by these evils. The negro as a slave once represented that wounded, bleeding Jew. He was in slavery, with the genial current of his soul frozen, the fountain of thought dried up. It was the North, the Good Samaritan who came along and took him up, stood him up as a man, and then offered him the relief, by opening to his ambition the school room, as he already had the church. This negro had been robbed of his manhood, his freedom, of everything that he held dear by the south. The south represented in this particular the robbers. It was fortunate that the Good Samaritan, the North, came to him and relieved him, but not stopping there, but went on and destroyed the robber band, to the extent that never again can there be human slavery in this country.

The Cause of Lynchings.

"Lynchings will not be destroyed by holding indignation meetings, and abusing any class of people or any section of the country, but the causes must be destroyed, and it will never cease until it is fully destroyed.

"Jim Crow cars, segregation in any form, race prejudice and hatred are not to be destroyed by passing resolutions, or by appealing to the legislature for the passage of laws against the evils but the cause must be hunted down and destroyed. We must get right the hearts of men, get them in harmony with the mind of the Christ. We must go out and win them. Our young people must help to destroy the causes. They must bear in mind that impudence is not manhood or womanhood. Politeness and courtesy will do much to help us to wipe out the cause.

"I want you my young people to recognize the fact that manhood and womanhood will count. The greatest living thing on earth is man. The greatest power he possesses is thought. Upon his ability to think—to think foretelling and accurately—to think on the mysteries of nature and the realities of life—upon this power rests all the substantial blessings and triumphs of life. It is this alone that can bring an individual in harmony with nature and enable him to master the difficulties of his environments. Thought alone will save a race. The great obstacle in the way of advancement of the negro race today is not the lack of opportunity—race or caste prejudice—not our lack of trades nor our poverty—not exclusion from trades' councils and labor unions—not political disfranchisement and legal discriminations—not Jim Crow cars and mob violence—not exclusion from all modern comforts of travel and denial of the privilege to own property in the best localities—not any of the thousand and one petty injustices and ostracism practiced against the race.

"Our greatest obstacle, young people, is the general thoughtlessness of the young men and women of today. We have reached that critical period as a race, when our enemies have grown passive and our friends luke-warm—both are waiting to see what we ourselves will do. Upon our present action depends their future efforts. Now is our time to make enthusiastic and perpetual allies of our friends and forever silence the opposition, if not win the support of our enemies. Nature is impartial and all nations rise or fall according to the same law.

Negro Success.
The success of the negro race depends upon a comprehension of facts of history and avoiding the mistakes of others. Our people must learn what made Greece at one time the greatest nation on earth and at another the pitiable victim of the unspeakable Turks and the object of the world's commiseration. This will make us a thoughtful people. Thoughtfulness begets industry economy and wealth. These coupled with personal integrity will solve the so-called negro problem and make this glorious country of ours the chiefest among ten thousand and altogether lovely."

This was followed by the report of the officers of the convention.

The convention committees were announced:

U. S. HAS VAST COAL SUPPLY

Figures Show Great Quantities in Reserve—New Record in Production

The following, issued by the government, gives facts about the U. S. supply of coal which is of special interest in these days of fuel discussion. The figures show that the production of coal last year was the greatest ever known in the country and that 1917 will establish a new record.

Not only food but fuel is a vital need of this country and of our allies—coal to run the ships and railroads, to feed the iron furnaces and furnish steam for all the manufacturing plants, coal in greater quantities than have ever before been mined in the United States or in any part of the world—and this need is being met in truly American fashion by the operators and owners of the mines and by the diggers of coal.

The weather was ideal, neither too hot nor too cold. Not so many went out to the park in the morning to a great many were there before dinner but after noon they began to gather in vast numbers. Policeman Trahey who has been on the park for years, is positive that from daylight till midnight there were more persons on the ground than ever before on any single day, tho not as many at night as last year.

The Red Cross Tent

The production of coal in the United States last year, he continued was the greatest in the history of the country. A new record, however, was set for the first six months of this year, fully 270,000,000 tons of bituminous coal being produced since January 1st, thus exceeding the output of the first six months of last year by about 20,000,000 tons. Even better news is that the limit has not yet been reached, for as the railroads are able to work out to better advantage the problem of car supply and give to the mines greater facilities for transporting their product to market, the supply of coal that reaches the consumer, will be in steadily increasing quantities. In the early months of 1917, because of the congestion of the railroads and the difficulties of transportation, the production of bituminous coal fell behind the high mark set in January and February, a year ago. As result of the railroad officials and the coal operators and representatives of mine workers who have volunteered their services to the Federal Government in this emergency, production has been speeded up within the last few months and the output of soft coal which in May exceeded all previous records, was surpassed in June.

Despite the extra demand in this country and the urgent needs of our allies, no one with the facts before him can doubt that the coal industry under the careful guidance of those now directing its welfare, will be able to supply all needs.

Difficulties of Distribution

The difficulty of distribution now so great will be intensified however, in the coming winter months. Just as consumers of foodstuffs are being urged to eliminate all waste and to practice sensible economy, so the consumers of coal must do their share in working out the coal problem by unloading every coal car as fast as it is received, and in improving their plants so as to utilize to the fullest the heat value of the coal that reaches their bins. In stopping the coal panic and in expediting a condition of fuel sufficiency, every consumer can do his bit.

NOTICE OF EXAMINATION

Examination for teachers' certificates will be held in the office of the county superintendent, Thursday and Friday, July 12th and 13th. All persons expecting to take the examination are required to file application blanks. Saturday, July 7, will be the day for filling and filing blanks. For further information call or write H. H. Vasconcellos, county superintendent of schools.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT AND BATTERY

Gilbert, Dewy Tribble, Erna Nunes and Quack Burkery were arrested Thursday charged with assault and battery. The complaining witness was Claude Hamm. The trouble which led to the arrests is alleged to have taken place at the First Ward play ground. The two Deckers are in jail. Baptist is under bond in the sum of $25, for trial today. Tribble and Burkery will be taken before Judge Thomson in the county court today and Nunes was assed a fine of $3 and costs.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY GAVE PROGRAM.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Baptist church was held Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Jonas Lashmet. The program opened with the singing of a hymn, "Rescue the Perishing," and as the beginning of the devotional Mrs. Williamson read the 19th Psalm and called upon Mrs. E. O. Mayer for prayer. The company then sang "Work for the Night is Coming," after which the discussion of topics began. The leaders and their themes were as follows:

"The Bible as the Missionary Book," Miss Etta Massey.

"The Bible as the Word of God," Miss Dolly Bowen.

"The Work of a Bible," Miss Stevenson.

"Various Phases of the Bible," Mrs. Gard.

"The Whole Round World Bible," Miss Nettie Hayden.

There was a summary of a leaflet by Rev. Mr. Tilden, at one time pastor of the church.

"Examples from the Bible," Olive Blunt.

Interest was added to the program by a song, "Jesus Loves Me, The Know," sung by Miss Margaret V. Hamson. The exercises closed with prayer by Mrs. Gard.

HOME CANNING BY 1-PER- IOD COLD-PACK METHOD

New Bulletin Just Issued by U. S. Department of Agriculture Gives Valuable Directions for Conserving Fruits and Vegetables From Home Gardens.

Washington, D. C. July 5—Canning fruits and vegetables in the home by the one-period cold-pack method is a relatively simple process and can be done with ordinary kitchen equipment and with comparatively little labor. Much of the surplus of the home garden can be saved for winter use by this canning method which is fully described in a special bulletin just issued by the United States Department of Agriculture. Farmers' Bulletin 839, "Home Canning by the One-Period Cold-Pack Method." This bulletin is of special interest and value to all housewives, canning clubs, societies or persons interested in conserving the food supply of the Nation. INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

William Stockton of Sinclair, who was accompanied by Harrison Strawn of the same neighborhood, was injured in an automobile accident which happened Wednesday afternoon about 5:30 near the homes of C. S. Black and Hardin Clark, three miles north of the city. The men, who were on their way from Beardstown to Jacksonville, were driving rapidly and had turned to the side of the road after passing the residence of Mr. Clark when the accident happened. Mr. Stockton was at the wheel and evidently turned too sharply and the car was thrown over pinning him beneath. Stockton received an ugly scalp wound and was brought to the city by Mr. Clark and taken to Our Savior's hospital where Dr. Baxter attended him. Mr. Strawn was more fortunate and escaped without injury. The Ford runabout which had been in use only about two months, was badly wrecked.

CIVIL SERVICE LAW WILL BE ENFORCED

Governor Lowden Issues Statement To Clear Up Misunderstanding On This Subject.

The following statement has been issued by Gov. Lowden with reference to the enforcement of the state civil service laws:

The governor states that he wished to make it clear that the civil service rules will be enforced by the administration. On this point he says: "If this administration stands for anything it is the enforcement of all laws as long as they remain on the state books."

The statement also explains changes in the merit law, made by amendments passed by the fifty-first general assembly. The statement follows:

"There seems to be a misapprehension as to what effect the administrative code, which has just gone into effect, has upon the civil service appointments of the state. That code provides expressly that civil service employees under the old law shall not be affected so far as they may be needed under the new law by virtue of that act. Of course, many employees under the law as it was formerly have been legislated out of existence and are not needed under the present law. All others who were in the classified service before remain in the classified service now."

"There is also a misapprehension as to the effect of the amendments to our state civil service law. The only material change made was with reference to the trial clause. That clause as amended provides that the employing officer may remove an employee for any reason other than political, religious or race reasons. However, in all cases, he must state in writing his reasons for such removal and give a copy of those reasons to the discharged employee and file a copy with the civil service commission. If he does in fact remove for political, religious or race reasons, the persons so removed may petition the commission and be granted a hearing upon the matter. If the commission finds that the removal was for any one of these three reasons, the employee will be reinstated."

"I wish to make it clear that the civil service laws will be enforced during this administration. I know of no way with reference to such laws, any more than any other laws, by which a compromise can be made between enforcement and non-enforcement. If this administration stands for anything, it is the enforcement of all laws as long as they remain on the statute books."

"I have had a conference upon this subject with the directors of the various departments, and I may say that they are in hearty accord with the ideas so expressed."

LIBERAL SHIPMENT OF

WET GOODS

The Fourth of July celebration in Jacksonville was recorded as one of the quietest known in recent years, notwithstanding the fact that such liberal shipments of beer and other liquors into the city July 3 were reported. The greater part of the shipments came from Arenzville. The shipments were so numerous that one or two wagons in addition to those regularly used by the express company were needed for delivery purposes. The police department have knowledge of the shipment and none of this "booze" was consigned to persons known as bootleggers. There were a great many "parties" in the country this year and most of the refreshments were taken out by picnic parties to help out with the celebration program. Considering the quantity of liquor known to have been received the number of cases of drunkenness reported—three—was very small.

FIRE CRACKER CAUSES ALARM.

Only one alarm was received at the fire department on the Fourth. This came about 10 o'clock Wednesday evening and was caused by someone throwing a fire cracker against a curtain which Jerry Clancy had placed over a window in his home in Sharp street. Mr. Clancy discovered the burning curtain and extinguished the blaze without damage before the arrival of the fire department.

URGENT NEED FOR MEN AT TRAINING CAMP

Lack of Military Training Will Not Handicap Applicants.

Lack of Previous military training will not be a handicap to men of twenty-five years or over who desire to enter the officers' training camp which opens August 27, according to advice from the war department sent to Mayor Rodgers. Men who have had such experience a number of years ago will be given small preference over men with no training. This is true because military training methods have undergone such changes in recent years that the training received several years ago is of slight value.

Notwithstanding the fact that considerable emphasis has been laid on the need for men of mature years, men of younger years are especially desired by the war department, for there are many commissions which are best suited for younger and more active men.

The men who are now finishing their course of training in the first officers camp include practically all of the men in the U. S. who have had previous military training and are not now in army service. In organizing this camp previous military training was one of the main qualifications, and this condition excluded a great many young men who were anxious to take training for officers' positions in the regular army.

July 15 is the final date for application in the second training camp, and it is therefore urgent that men between the designated ages who contemplate doing so should apply at once.

JACKSONVILLE JOURNAL COMPANY

LARGE NUMBER OF

VEHICLES PASSED

A citizen of South Jacksonville told a Journal reporter that he counted the vehicles that passed his residence Wednesday afternoon en route to Nichols park. From 5 p. m. until 5:05 p. m. 20 automobiles alone passed not including other vehicles, and from 5 p. m. until 5:30 p. m. 69 automobiles passed. From 1 until 5:30 p. m. this citizen judged that vehicles of all kinds en route to the park must have averaged about 6 per minute. When one considers the number of vehicles that passed in the five and one-half hours in addition to those carried on the street cars and vehicles which took the Hardin avenue route, there must have been a monster crowd at the park during the afternoon and evening.

UNDER ARREST IN PEORIA.

George Murphy who escaped from the Morgan county jail several weeks ago is under arrest in Peoria charged with stealing an automobile. Chief Davis received a letter from Chief Rhodes of Peoria yesterday with a photograph of Murphy and asking for information as to his local record.

Murphy about a year ago was arrested in Springfield for the burglary of the residence of Annie Stauff. At the time of his arrest he had a set of valuable furs in a suit case which afterward were identified by Miss Stauff. He was indicted by the November grand jury for burglary and was in jail awaiting trial. He induced the turnkey to accompany him to a residence to get a suit of clothes. While the turnkey waited in front Murphy went thru the house and disappeared. His whereabouts was unknown until news came of his arrest in Peoria.

ELKS IN ANNUAL CONCLAVE IN BOSTON

War Has Caused Several Changes in Program, But Will Not Seriously Affect Attendance—Delegates from Every State in Union

Boston, Mass., July 5.—The first of the host of Elks who will be here for the annual national convention and reunion which begins in this city Sunday arrived today. Several officers of the grand lodge and other well known leaders of the order were included in the advance guard.

While the war has caused several changes in the original program, including the elimination of the reunion parade, which heretofore has been the great spectacular feature of the gathering, it is not expected to seriously affect the attendance of visitors. Bookings at the local hotels indicate that good-sized delegations will be on hand from virtually every state of the Union.

Downtown streets are flaring with decorations of purple and white, the official colors of the Elks. One of the most noticeable features of the decorative scheme is sure to attract the attention and admiration of all visitors is a mammoth floral piece in the Public Garden representing the official insignia of the order.

One thousand automobiles have been placed at the disposal of the reception committee. The cars will be used to convey the visitors to Lexington, Concord, Plymouth and other places of historic interest.

WILL MEET TODAY.

The Missionary Society of the Central Christian church will meet at the Church this afternoon at 2:45. Mrs. J. R. Watt, leader, Subjects, "Argenta" and "The Opportunities of the Hour." All ladies of the Church invited.

One walks down the street known so long and misses so many of those gone away.

Moore Goltra long ago moved out on the "St. Louis road," and then to "Diamond Grove," and his Johnnie stayed awhile out south and now comes back from Los Angeles occasionally.

Col. Chambers is coming out of his "horse gate" on the old black horse, and paces gently down the street, as some of the boys used to pace in their rolling walk.

Len has passed on, with his strong high shouldered carriage, and the places which knew him before, know him no more."

Fleming Stevenson left for Chicago awhile, came back and built the new house, and went to "the Diamond." Jennie is left, way off in Hartford, but Nettie went some years ago.

The Alexanders and Wilsons and Morris Collins drifted out from the Lathrop house; some to other states and cities, some where the roof of grass never leaks.

"J. W." does business no more in the "Bow-Window" on the west side of the Square, nor is the big brick he put up there. His stately wife laid down to her rest, and left "Col. John W. King, their only child but for a little while."

"Father Adams" sits no more on the Bancroft's porch, or counsels the young boys on Saturdays at the old "First Church."

Aleck McDonald—handsome, tall, dignified, the Scotch showing out clearly, and "Matty Lewis" Israel, his wife, are out in the grove, with Ed and Frank, and Fred sleeps "where rolls the Oregon."

Charles Rockwell, early settler of earliest settlers and Margaret Wilkinson are not on the "city line" anymore; nor are Fannie or Ed.

The Rawlings have scattered so much that "only the twin girls" are at the corner, and Dan in Michigan, "I. D." and Ike and Spencer are gone to stay, and Annie only occasionally comes "home" from Philadelphia.

Mr. Eames no more bends his long back picking up the fallen boughs in his yard; and Charlie drifted West, and into the further Beyond, a generation ago.

Of the Horace Bancroft's only the handsome mother watches the daughter and the daughter's daughter and her's again.

The Swifts, with Willie and the other boy, went away so long ago that probably no one recalls their last homes.

Old settlers though Major Simms and Chatham were, they have followed on the eternal march of mankind, and only Louis is here of them all.

"Dell" Reiter is around on Prairie street, but the Doctor and his wife, and the beautiful Lizzie, and Mary, "each, all, are away in their dwelling of rest."

THIS is the time to prove whether you are, or are not, a patriotic American citizen. Some men are patriotic but not yet American citizens; they love this land, as intensely as if they had been born here. Some men are American citizens who are not patriotic; they're obstructing, rather than helping the nation at this time. There's a third group who are neither patriotic or American; we'll leave them out.

Now, it isn't fair for any of us to question the quality of another man's patriotism; some may fight for the country, on land or sea or in the air. Some may farm for the country, and for the benefit of a starving world. Some may finance the country, by the use of money. And many others, who are able to do none of these, can serve in factory, store, office, home; can give of time and labor and subscriptions to the Red Cross work; there are many ways of doing your part.

Nobody has a right to say that you are not fully doing it; you have to judge that for yourself. We raise the question; it's a question each of us should ask himself—

Am I a patriotic American citizen?

WHITE HALL CONSIDERS CITY MANAGER PLAN

Exponents of New Form of Government Introduced Subject at Council Session Tuesday Night—Alderman Ruckel is Leader in Present Agitation

White Hall, July 4.—Advocates of the manager plan of city government for White Hall secured an interesting Tuesday night at the regular July session of the city council, and while the proposition received no definite action toward the end of employing a city manager, the subject came up for earnest consideration thru a motion by Alderman T. J. Grant that the mayor and aldermen serve without pay, and that the city attorney be instructed to frame an ordinance to this effect repealing the present salary ordinance, which motion was lost on a tie vote, the mayor voting against the motion. Alderman C. A. Ruckel is a staunch advocate of the city manager plan, and he saw in the motion a step in the direction of his idea. Mr. Ruckel takes great interest in municipal affairs as well as matters pertaining to good roads, and in advocating the city manager plan made it plain that he would not again consent to serve on the city council on a salary. Alderman Morgan, who voted in opposition to the anti-salary motion, spoke in favor of the city manager plan, but contended that the motion would not be a step in that direction.

The proceedings are interesting to those who have watched the development of the city manager plan of city government, and Alderman C. A. Ruckel is a leading local exponent of the idea. He is doing service on the city council from purely a motive of civic pride and to be of the greatest possible use to the community. In speaking on this occasion he declared that the bunglegesome character of the aldermanic body has prevented and is now preventing the greatest measure of usefulness as the city governing body.

Wants Council to Direct Only

He says that a manager held strictly accountable for his acts and accomplishments would accomplish far more with greater efficiency and economy than is possible by the entire body composing the city council.

He argues that the council as at present constituted should be maintained as a board of directors such as direct the affairs of corporations, but that the affairs of the city in all its departments should be conducted by the manager who can be held to strict accountability. The deplorable condition of the city pumping plant might not have come to pass under the city manager plan.

Last spring the proposition to issue bonds was defeated overwhelmingly, and the needed improvements can not be financed under the present cramped condition of the city finances.

Became disabled, and the main water users fear that there will be a serious suspension of the water supply unless early action can be taken to solve the problem. Just why the people voted down the proposition is attributed to lack of knowledge of the true situation, but the council issued a statement to the voters in advance of the election, in which it was sought to clear the way for a decisive vote in favor of the water bonds. In these movements Mr. Ruckel is a leading figure, and he has been more than ever impressed with the city manager plan.

Promises to Be Live Issue

Dallas Tex. boasts of its millionaire city officer, but in Mr. Ruckel White Hall has a city official who is not serving for the mere salary, little as that is, but to be of service to the community, and many of his public acts have been misconstrued and been unappreciated. He is a man who stands higher in the financial world than many are aware, and he is one of the most unassuming and earnest of citizens. What he will accomplish in the city manager plan remains to be seen, but he will not give up until the matter is decided one way or the other. All the members of the present city council favor the Ruckel idea, and it will be a live issue henceforth.

SEVEN DAY MID-SUMMER

PROFIT-SHARING CASH SALE

Prices are going up every day. In spite of the daily advance in prices we have at this time many special lots of merchandise bought for this sale months since at much lower prices than prevail at this time. These special lots together with such lines as we are compelled to discontinue, owing to inability to secure additional quantities on account of the unusual present conditions of supply. Also all odd lots and broken assortments that have accumulated in our several departments will be offered at distinct price reductions. We also offer at lowest possible prices many items in all departments that are now in greatest demand and usually difficult to secure. These wanted items are not offered at clearance sale or greatly reduced prices, but at the very lowest market prices prevailing at this time and in many instances below the present wholesale price.

This Sale Begins Saturday, July 7th, Continuing Until Saturday Evening, July 14th.

EDUCATORS OF NATION CONVENE IN PORTLAND

To Be One of Most Notable and Resultful Meetings in History of Co-operative Educational Movement—All Degrees and Phases of Education to be Considered

Portland, Ore., July 5.—The Rose City is beginning to fill up with delegates and visitors to the annual convention of the National Education Association, some twenty thousand of whom, representing every class from the kindergarten to the university, will make this city their Mecca during the coming week. The convention headquarters were opened this morning by General Secretary, D. W. Springer, who, with a large force of assistants, will be in continual session save during sleeping hours, until the delegates have gotten into working order on Monday.

Judging from the completeness and wide scope of the preparations that have been made by educators throughout the country for the convention of the society, it will be one of the most notable and resultful meetings in the history of the co-operative educational movement. During the five days' sessions, which will come to a close on Friday, every conceivable topic that could come within the general subject of education will be discussed by the foremost teachers and scholars of the nation. From the kindergarten child to the college post-graduate, the musician to the artisan, all kinds of degrees and phases of education will be considered.

To Reflect War Conditions

The proceedings of the convention, including hundreds of papers, addresses and discussions, will reflect conditions arising from the war. While general educational problems will not be neglected, much of the program will center around ideas of preparedness, nationalism and patriotism. Military training, the modification of the scholastic courses, the possible shortening of the school term, and the continuation or elimination of college and school athletics during the war are some of the matters slated to receive attention at the hands of the educational leaders of the country.

The "round table" and departmental meetings will begin Monday afternoon and continue through the five days of the convention. Many noted educators will participate in these meetings, which form the real work of the convention, and from which a great impetus to the onward advance of education is expected to be derived.

Among the more important special departments are those on kindergarten education, elementary education, secondary education, higher education, normal schools, manual training and art, musical education, business education, child study, physical education, science instruction, school administration, libraries, special education, and school patrons.

Changed conditions brought about by the war will lend added importance to the discussions before the department of rural and agricultural education. Plans for a systematized and rapid training of women to take the places of men called to the colors will be discussed by eminent leaders in the industrial world as well as educators of prominence.

The general sessions of the convention will be held in the new Municipal Auditorium. Schools and halls throughout the city will be pressed into service to accommodate the many departmental meetings and side conferences.

Formal Opening Sunday

The convention will be formally opened Sunday afternoon with a meeting at the Auditorium. Addresses of welcome will be delivered by Governor Lister of Washington, Governor Withycombe of Oregon, and Commissioner George L. Baker of Portland. Mark Woodruff, secretary of the Portland general committee, will introduce Dr. Robert J. Aley, president of the University of Maine and president of the National Education Association, who will respond to the addresses of greeting.

The entertainment program mapped out for the visitors is a pretentious one. Receptions, luncheons, and automobile rides about the city will be included among the features. Musical concerts and recitals will also be numerous throughout the

WORKING FOR THE NATION

At the request of Food Administrator Herbert C. Hoover, nearly one hundred thousand Camp Fire girls all over the United States expect to begin today to distribute "household tags" to all housewives and to collect their pledges to take part in the national service of food conservation. These "household tags" which are to be hung in the windows, consist of the shield of the United States surrounded by heads of wheat.

Dr. Luther H. Gulick, President of the Camp Fire Girls, has been preaching food conservation since shortly after the outbreak of the war. He has been working in close co-operation with the Government Departments, and his advice has been based on the official requirements. The girls have backed him up loyally, and Mr. Hoover's program was carried out in thousands of homes even before it was officially promulgated.

President Wilson, who is honorary president of the Camp Fire Girls, has found time amidst his multitudinous war duties to write to them several times approving their war program and accepting the honorary presidency. It is safe to say that the Camp Fire Girls have learned more about food values and conservation in the last two months than any other organization, and they are all agreed that a clean plate is a patriotic plate."

Why the Name "COPPER-CLAD"

Because THE COPPER-CLAD RANGE is Clad with a Sheet of Pure Copper Where Other Ranges Rust Out

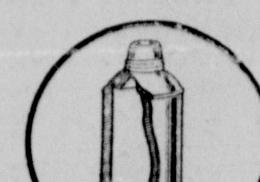

Study the section of the Copper-Clad Wall as pictured above. No. 1 is the grey iron inner lining or fire lining. No. 2 is the thick layer of long fiber asbestos, the heat-holding material that makes fuel do double duty. No. 3 is the sheet of pure copper between the sweaty asbestos and outer casing or range body. Notice the domes or round bumps on the sheet of copper. See how they hold the copper sheet away from the range body, leaving a dry air space next to the range body or outer casing, as shown by No. 4.

As all moisture in the asbestos must escape toward the cold side or away from the heat, you can understand why the sheet of copper must be between the asbestos and cold side or outer casing.

When the moisture strikes the copper it can get no farther, and as copper never rusts, it is not affected by the moisture. The dry air space is almost exactly like the air space in a thermos bottle. But for the air space in a thermos bottle it would not retain the heat. Just so with the Copper-Clad. The dry air space holds heat better than solid iron even if an inch thick, and is a great fuel saver. It is estimated that this air space saves a shovel of coal at every meal, or over a thousand every year.

The Copper-Clad Range has four walls and an air space like a Thermos bottle.

Then the name Copper-Clad means something to you. It means a range clad with pure copper where other ranges rust out.
